HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1953

The Senior Class of 1953 began its freshman year with an enrollment of forty pupils in September 1949. After the first semester we lost Rex Curtis (he moved to Independence) and Elwanda Keeran (she transferred to another school). Kenneth Johnson dropped out of school before the end of the first semester. Richard Workman joined the class late in September. His family moved here from Eldorado Springs, where his father was pastor of the Methodist Church. Shirley Hobbs, Gene Thomas Wilkinson, Betty Mansell, and Joyce Middleton finished the freshman year in this school but did not return for the second year. Our sponsor during this year was Mrs. Gertrude Wyatt.

Our sophomore year began with an enrollment of thirty-one. We lost Charles Allen Jessee by death during the second week of this year. Early in October Richard Workman left us as his father was moved to the Methodist Church in Malta Bend, Missouri. We gained Norma Kirk during the second semester, but she transferred to another school at the end of the year. She came to us from the high school in Ukiah, California. Louise Wilkinson did not return for her third year. Our sponsor for this year was Mr. Joe Wolf.

Beginning our junior year, we found we had gained Jimmy and Ronnie Reagin, who transferred from the high school at Tipton, Missouri. Mary Mullinix from Lee's Summit, Donna Warren from Odessa, and Betty Lane from Wyandotte High School in Kansas City, Kansas. Our total was thus increased to thirty-three. During this year we lost Mary Mullinix, who moved to Raymore, and Betty Lane, who dropped out of school to go to work. We gave "Life Begins at Sixteen" as our Junior play on April 15. The annual banquet and prom was given in honor of the seniors on May 6. Our sponsor was Supt. H. F. Cline.

We began our senior year with an enrollment of thirty-one. Those who have spent the entire four years in this school are: Joan Adams, Dorothy Axsom, Nancy Baker, Mary Ellen Barker, Mary Ellen Bozarth, Roberta Brown, Jim Cummins, Curtis Day, Bill Dean, Lawrence Dennis, Joan Duvall, Jackie Ewing, Mary Lou Grayum, Jean Green, David Heath, Sharon Lou Hutchings, Raymond Lindquist, Braddy Marble, Fae Moore Miller, Charles Nebgen, Mary Belle Sears, Norma Simmons, Roy Gene Turner, Bonnie Trabue, Arthur Lee Wilkinson, Glenn Williams, Johnny Williams, and "Sonny" Webb. The Senior play "Oh, Promise Me!" was given on May 5. It was directed by our sponsor, Miss Mary Moore.

During our four years in high school we have had the following teachers: Supt. H. F. Cline, Miss Mary Moore (principal), Mr. Garrett O'Dell (coach), Mrs. Gertrude Wyatt, Mrs. Hannah Belle Peck, Mr. Howard M. Vaughan (music), Mr. Joe Wolf (coach), Miss Betty Kinney (music), Mr. Jack Vrentas (music), Miss Zelia Zulauf (music), Mr. James E. Embrey, and Mr. J. E. Griffith (coach).

"SOME OF THESE DAYS"

In this year 1983 I find myself often turning to the past. Before me is a framed picture of the Class of 1953. All the faces are still quite familiar to me. It was just 10 years ago I met Mr. and Mrs. Gene Turner at a Republican Convention. Mrs. Turner, the former Mary Bozarth, had kept up with many of our old classmates. They have five sweet little "apes"--all of them boys, too. Gene is quite the politician or was--but you know now the popular parties are the Universals and Non-Universals. The Mule and Elephant dropped out about twenty years ago. It seems Bonnie Trabue went right into Dramatic School after graduation and soon became well known as Mrs. Jimmie Durante. (Hi Ya Babe!) Mary Belle Sears was married in June 1953, and has had a very nice life rearing Swopes. Braddy Marble and Glenn Williams bought out the Ford company in 1969 and have enlarged the company considerably. Last year they patented the first interplanetary Fordamatic coupoplane. Roberta Brown went to work in an office in the summer of 1953 and went right to the top. She now owns Proctor and Gamble and has her best friend, Joan Duvall, as her vice president. They are both married and have beautiful homes.

Jean Green, I hear, moved right to Lee's Summit after graduation and married "you know who." Now he is the mayor of her favorite town. Now get ready for a shock. "Doc" Lindquist is chief surgeon at Mayo hospital in Rochester and his head technician is his wife, the former Jackie Ewing. I was quite pleased to see Gene and Mary that day and also pleased to hear of my old classmates. The next day I received a letter from an old friend--Norma "Skipper" Simmons. She had just been honored with the Best Teacher Award. She, too, has a family and is happily married to Curtis Day, the head of the Olympics. In the letter I found news of Mary Lou Grayum, now known as "Lou-Lou" all over the globe. She is a great international hostess and entertainer. It seems that David Heath is now head of the Yale university track team. He broke all former records in pole vault.

About fifteen years ago I visited Oak Grove. There I learned about others of the Class of 1953. Joan Adams went to New York City and studied at the Julliard School of Music. Now she is a Metropolitan opera star. While we are on the musical idea--John Williams now has a dance band that has the high honor of being the top band on Mars as well as on Earth. Sharon Hutchings twirled herself right to the top and is now producing plays on Broadway. I saw Fae (Moore) Miller while I was in Oak Grove. Fae and Hubby own a large line of planes with Hollywood mufflers. All of the old class would be proud of Ronnie Reagin. He became a very able electrical engineer and even added to the Einstein theory on Relativity. Along the Art line--it seems we had an unknown Rembrandt in our midst. Lawrence Dennis is the celebrated artist of our time. "Prune" Jimmy Reagin, the lover of our class, settled down in a large plum orchard in California. The ambition of Charles Nebgen was to be a hot-rod driver, but his mind was changed--it seems--after he went into the Navy. He started building race boats, and he has been undefeated for the past twenty years. To our class has been added the name Jones. Yes, Mary Barker's dream came true. She is a very happy housewife. Head of Skyways Department in Washington, D. C., is Bill Dean, who was ace pilot until the rocket era came in. Jim Cummins is an admiral on the High Seas of Jupiter. His boat's name, by the way, is "Judy." The war of this decade is on Pluto, the Plutonians being driven back by "Zeke" Wilkinson, who is head of a marine base there. Another happy housewife--Nancy Baker (now Costin)--runs a lumber mill in Canada. The sunny one of our class, "Sonny" Webb, is a famous inventor. He is also sought after to give his famous after dinner speeches. Some call him "the second Will Rogers."

The class of 1953 has been covered except for one--the writer of this glimpse into the future. I have done many things--published my poems, written a play, and have been in two plays on Broadway. Also, I am happily married.

The success of our class, I'm sure, lies in the high ideals held before us in our home town and school in Oak Grove, Missouri, U. S. A. of the planet World.

CLASS WILL

("These Things We Leave You")

In this year of our Lord, 1953, the 14th day of May, we--the Seniors of Oak Grove High School--being of sound mind and judgment do leave this--our first, last, and in-between will. (We ask that the present Junior Class see that this will is properly administered upon.)

Joan Adams wills her ability to make eyes in the halls to anyone who can get by with it.
Dorothy Axsom leaves her quiet way to Donnie Gauldin.
Curtis Day leaves his place on the basketball team to Allen Morgan.
Nancy Baker leaves her vast collection of jokes to Francine Moore.
Mary Ellen Barker leaves her fickle eye to Barbara Buzzard.
Mary Ellen Bozarth leaves her way with the younger boys to Gwyn Wilkinson.
Joan Duvall wills to Judy Reagin her quiet disposition.
Jean Green wills her out-of-town boy friends to Sandra Jones.
Fae Moore Miller wills her rings to anyone who has that ambition.
Glenn Williams wills his sharp car to Mrs. Peck.
Braddy Marble leaves his job taking football boys to practice to Larry Burchett.
David Heath leaves all his fans his fondest memories and smelling salts.
Norma Simmons wills her graceful walk to Myrnetta Noltensmeyer.
Jackie Ewing wills her ability to sit down and read a book to Charles Madsen.
Raymond Linqvist wills his snore in English class to Everette Johnson.
Jim Cummins wills his pet hobby to the squirrels.
Donna Warren wills her ability to go steady to Mary Frances Adams.
Sharon Hutchings wills her twirling ability to her students.
Mary Lou Grayum wills her good habits to Philip Jones.
Mary Belle Sears wills her correspondence to Dorothy Booker.
Roberta Brown leaves her photography position on the Yearbook Staff to K. Herman.
Bonnie Trabue wills her ability to do character parts in plays to the characters in the Junior class.
"Sonny" Webb leaves his sunny disposition to anyone sunny enough to be as sunny.
Bill Dean wills his charter membership in the "Fresh Air and Sunshine Club" to Allen Morgan.
Lawrence Dennis leaves his position on the Art Staff to Dale Johnson.
Gene Turner wills his peaceful ways to Joyce Lunceford.
Jimmy Reagin leaves his good grade in Chemistry to Bill Wildschuetz.
Ronnie Reagin wills his nice, sweet, quiet disposition to anyone who has the ears to listen to himself.
Arthur Wilkinson wills his ring to any deserving girl.
Johnny Williams wills his first-chair position in the All-State Orchestra to his cousin Jim.

As a whole, we Seniors leave to this school our many happy memories. To the faculty we leave one box of aspirin to kill the headaches we have caused them. To the underclassmen we leave our hopes, ambitions, and only our good habits. May you reap from our shining example!

David Heath, F.B. Capt.

In an entertaining manner, Rev. Sidney J. Kimbell, the Methodist Church minister, was master of ceremonies. Leaving the more serious moments with the more serious moments of football. Walter V. Perry was the invocation.

Special music was provided by the Gams, David Heath and the St. An girls' Sextet.

After the banquet, the team consumed the prepared dinner consisting of Turkey, Dressing, Gravy, Yam-Yams, Corn, Celery, Salad, Hot Rolls, Pie and Coffee. Johnny Williams favored the crowd with a selection on his trumpet. Mrs. Sidney J. Kimbell accompanied him on the piano.

A LARGE CROWD OF FANS GATHER FOR FOOTBALL BANQUET

REV. SIDNEY J. KIMBELL IS MASTER OF CEREMONY AT ANNUAL DINNER

Last Thursday evening, Dec. 4 over two hundred person gathered at the High School Auditorium to honor the 1952 Panther Football team. Arrangements for the banquet were in charge of the local P. T. A. The football boys and their dates and parents were seated first, then the rest of the fans were seated filling the dining hall completely.

Braddy Marble G. Jim Reagin T.

The speaker, Harry Fritz, head football coach at Central State Teachers College at Warrensburg, spoke on football as a builder of character and worth, followed by a review of the 1951 Kirksville Warrensburg football game.
